

WNY WOMEN'S FOUNDATION
Strong Women. Stronger Community.

Will you step up for women like Julia?

Julia is a single mom of a three-year-old boy. She works as a drugstore clerk, but has always dreamed of a career in healthcare.

Going back to college feels like an insurmountable hurdle: Julia doesn't know how she will afford several years of school while balancing work and child care at the same time.

The WNY Women's Foundation has solutions.

For Julia, the WNY Women's Foundation's brand-new Women's Economic Mobility Hub is a perfect fit.

Julia learns that she can earn a pharmacy technician certificate in six months, and the Women's Economic Mobility Hub will provide her with unique services: an Achievement Coach to help her through the program with encouragement, advice, and mentoring; access to child care subsidies and healthcare; and employers who have heard her voice and are willing to change policies and culture to ensure success.

Julia is excited to begin her program, and she knows that through the Women's Economic Mobility Hub, she'll have the tools to succeed on the path to her new career.

Now more than ever, supporting women in Western New York like Julia is essential.

Throughout the ups and downs of 2020, the WNY Women's Foundation continues to focus on solutions that support women in our community on a path to economic empowerment and leadership.

Please join us this year and be part of the solution!

Your Impact in 2020

But thanks to your support, throughout this strange year, the WNY Women's Foundation has been able to work nonstop to provide additional supports to working mothers, female business owners, essential workers, and employers.
